PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE

Frontend Developer (Web Application Developer)

BornWizh Technologies, Chidambaram | November 2024 – Present | 1+ Year Experience

Project: Education Website Application

- Developed and maintained multiple web application modules using Angular framework, ensuring high performance, scalability, and clean code standards.
- Designed fully responsive user interfaces for dashboards, listing screens, and management panels using HTML5, CSS3, Flexbox, and media queries.
- Integrated RESTful APIs to handle dynamic data retrieval, user authentication flows, and role-based access control (RBAC) for different user types.
- Built and maintained reusable Angular components and injectable services, improving code reusability and long-term maintainability.
- Implemented Angular routing, lazy loading, and route guards to optimize performance and manage navigation for role-specific user sessions.
- Utilized RxJS Observables and Angular services to manage asynchronous data streams and real-time updates across components.
- Conducted systematic debugging and root-cause analysis of UI issues, reducing defect count and improving product stability.
- Collaborated with backend developers and QA testers through regular stand-ups and code reviews for smooth feature delivery.
